Small Talk Can Make a Big Difference

There's Still Plenty To Discuss...

Hundreds of women had such a positive experience at Menucha's Big Talk last year.

To keep the conversation flowing, we'll be hosting a series of Small Talk events – a chance to discuss the big issues in a relaxed and appropriate way.

Upcoming Small Talk Events

March: An ideal event for newlyweds and those supporting them.

May: If you have nappies in your home, this event is for you.

October: Want to be a supportive grandparent? Come hear the latest insights.

December: Mum of 1? Mum of 5? New Grandma? How to navigate life changes and transitions.

Look out for our adverts nearer the time.
In the Meantime, if we can help, let's talk.

@streiferwigs

Do thoughts and images keep coming into your mind, making you anxious?

Yes, and I repeatedly do things to reduce the anxiety, but they don't help.

Let's Talk About OCD

Perinatal OCD (Obsessive Compulsive Disorder) affects 2-3% of women with repeated, unwanted thoughts – obsessions – about their baby's or others' safety. This causes anxiety leading to compulsive behaviours, like performing rituals or checking things, which 'have' to be done to feel better, if only in the short term.

The right treatment of OCD can make a huge difference.

Motherhood can be a joy, so Menucha is here to provide understanding, non-judgmental advice, specialised therapy services, and referrals. If we can help, let's talk.

What is Pidyon Rashash?

A pidyon nefesh (redemption of the soul), revealed by the Arizal, taught by the holy Rashash. Talmidei chachamim set aside 160 pure silver coins and evoke rachamei Shamayim with special kabalistic tefilos individually for each name, and donate these coins to talmidei chachamim, through this segulah, the judgment is transferred from the person to the coins.

Rav Chaim Vital, who performed it for himself yearly, states 'It has been tried and proven thousands of times! And one is guaranteed to live the entire year in peace!' (הגהות שער הכוונות)

The Pidyon Rashash is known to bring refuos, shiduchim, parnasa, children, shalom bayis - and more, now try it for yourself!

Each name will be mentioned by the Tzion of the Rashash
