Master Masechta is an extra-curricular program highly regarded by Mechanchim and Rabbonim across the community. Led by Rabbi Gavriel Brett, for over five years MM has been providing an environment for boys to discover their own strengths in learning and Yiddishkeit and develop in a healthy and vibrant atmosphere. Now with more than 150 boys, we are delighted to welcome Rabbi Aron Jacobson and Rabbi Yossi Lewis to our growing and devoted staff.

Among Master Masechta's goals are to inspire and empower boys growing up in today's world to become real Bnei Torah, and to prepare them for Yeshiva and beyond by nurturing a love for learning that will remain with them for life. The yiras Shomayim and focus on bein odom l'chaveiro that they gain in the process is a lifelong asset that they can always treasure.

In a relaxed but motivating environment Master Masechta demonstrates to its participants the incredible feeling of satisfaction that comes with completing, understanding and retaining entire Masechtos. Every boy is catered to on a personal basis and guided to learn what it means to master Torah whilst forging a strong bond and tremendous achdus with their friends and Rebbeim.

Transforming Lives with Medical Solutions

Since giving birth I'm having flashbacks,
nightmares, anxiety,
and panic...

You may have Birth Trauma.

Let's Talk About Birth Trauma

Birth Trauma affects 30,000 women each year in the UK.

When giving birth has been frightening, maybe due to unexpected or alarming events, mothers can suffer PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder). Sometimes, but not always, triggered by reminders of the birth, they can experience flashbacks, high levels of anxiety, even panic attacks; all of which can harm bonding with baby. Husbands affected by the birth can also experience PTSD.

Motherhood can be a joy, so Menucha is here to provide understanding, non-judgmental advice, specialised therapy services, and referrals. If we can help, let's talk.
