GOT MARRIED
IN THE LAST TWO YEARS?

We live in turbulent times. Conflicting messages, images and illusions assault our senses; at times, we feel we don't know the answers. Is it bad to look good? How short is too short? Is modesty about inches? Is fashion friend or foe?

Come tune out all the outside noise and tap into the pristine world of your inner truth. Discover the gift of your feminine essence as you allow the laser beam of Torah clarity to illuminate the answers that lie deep within you. Join us for a journey to your core.

Cocktail Awareness

Do you drink cocktails?

Are you aware of the many Kashrus concerns?

Some of the issues:

Leaves, Herbs, Fruit & Vegetables

Many cocktails contain at least one of the aforementioned. Many of these need proper washing and checking according to Halacha. Eating one insect can involve up to 6 Issurim.

Spirits, Liqueurs, Liquors, Syrups & Mixers

One cannot assume all of these are fine. Many are not Kosher. If they don't have a hechsher, they should be checked with a reliable kashrus organisation.

Beers, Ales and Ciders

Although plain, unflavoured beer is acceptable, many ciders and craft beers have non-Kosher ingredients and they may not be indicated on the label.

Ingredients

Often, although a fruit is stated in the ingredients on the cocktail menu, it's not necessarily the case. Rather a syrup is used with that fruit's flavouring - many of these are not Kosher.

Grape based spirits

There are many grape-based spirits which the layman or untrained eye would not identify as such. Without a reliable hechsher, these are not Kosher. Some examples are: Brandy, Cognac, Armagnac, Pisco, Grappa, Vermouth (eg Martini), Port, Sherry, Madeira, Marsala, Aperitif, Gins made from grape, Vodka made from grapes (eg Ciroc). There are many more than these.

Keilim

These can be washed together with treife keilim and it is common in many bars to serve treife food in the same vicinity. Therefore, anything other than a clean glass could be problematic.

Other countries

Even if a beverage is Kosher in the UK, this is not necessarily the case abroad & vice versa.

Milk

Many cocktails may contain milk or milk derived ingredients but not necessarily stated in the ingredients. Additionally, certain well-known spirits are milk based e.g. Black Cow Vodka etc.

These issues are especially true in light of the fact that one may not even be able to see the labels of the products going in to the creation of the cocktail.

The above are just few of the many issues that can arise. Other examples are:

- Not all ingredients are stated (many cocktails can contain milk and/or not kosher ingredients.)
- Bartenders/Mixologists tend to add their own twist by adding other non Kosher ingredients for example topping up a drink by filling it with Champagne. Often bars will make their own syrups and will not necessarily want to divulge the ingredients.

Bonei Olam, Expresses their desire to pay tribute to:

A couple whose kindness is only matched by their devotion,
A couple in possession of a golden heart and sterling character,

It is in your Zechus that hundreds of local NW families have been uplifted now proudly bearing the titles of
"Mommy" and "Daddy,"

on the occasion of the Barmitzva of Avrumi נרו יאיר ומצלחת בשעה טובה

We wish you, B'ezras Hashem Yisborach, much health, happiness, nachas and incredible bounty for many, many years to come, so that you may continue your beautiful acts of Chesed.

With much gratitude for what you've done, do, and will continue to do for Bonei Olam, on behalf of those amongst us who are so desperately trying to build families of their own.

It is due to the continued support of benefactors like yourself that Bonei Olam is able to keep the hopes and dreams of so many local couples alive.

THE BONEI OLAM COMMITTEE

BEST WISHES FROM THE DEPTHS OF OUR HEARTS,

THE 488 LONDON BABIES KE"V
