THE MONTEFIORE SEMICHA COURSE

Training a new generation of future community rabbis, teachers and lay leaders

Starting
Basar Bechalav
September 2024

A part-time Semicha Course in London to be followed in parallel with a career or other studies.

Applications are invited to join the Montefiore Endowment's Semicha Course's latest 4–5 year cycle, for the beginning of Hilchot Basar Bechalav in September 2024. The study includes Shabbat, Niddah and other areas of practical Halacha. It also aims to teach future rabbis how to respond to the halachic challenges of fast-changing contemporary life.

Students will be prepared for Semicha Yoreh Yoreh, issued jointly by the Montefiore College and by Eretz Hemdah, the Institute of Advanced Jewish Studies, Jerusalem. The Semicha Course is known internationally as a robust and rigorous programme and is recognised for membership of the Rabbinical Council of America.

Applicants must have a sound educational background, both in Torah learning and secular studies. All must have studied in yeshivah and most will also hold university degrees or equivalent. The acceptance of Torah im Derekh Eretz and a wish to serve the community are essential. Students will be encouraged to continue their careers in parallel and will not pay tuition fees.

required to guard their eyes too.

I had a problem with my eyes.
I completely stopped looking at non-Jewish

Within a short time there was significant improvement in my eyes. ”
