YOU NEED COURAGE TO HOLD OUR LIFELINE

Even though we save lives, supporting Menucha (like seeking help) needs courage.

We help 1 in 4 families in the kehilla, yet the stigma of perinatal mental illness makes people worry about supporting us!

We have supported 700 families with our specialised therapy, treating illnesses that destroy families and threaten lives. This pikuach nefesh costs £1,800 for each family. Without supporters we can't continue.

Our Lifeline campaign on 16th/17th June needs everyone's help.

Will you take a page?

Will you put us on your WhatsApp status?

Will you donate?

Please be brave. Lives depend on it.

Job Title: Hub and Short Breaks Manager

Department: Children and Family Services

Salary: £35,000 to £40,000 per annum

Location: Finchley

Job Type: Permanent

Hours: 35 hours per week

Shifts: Term Time: Monday – Thursday & Sunday (including some evening work). School Holidays: Monday – Friday.

Do you have experience of leading teams to deliver high quality services for neurodivergent children and young people?

Do you have a natural ability to lead, motivate and influence others with initiative and enthusiasm?

If so, this role may be of interest to you!

About The Hub and Short Breaks service:

For over 20 years Norwood has run a Short Breaks service called Unity for children and young people. Many families benefit from this service and it remains highly popular. There is a waiting list across Barnet and Hertfordshire of those who wish to access this provision.

That's why we're expanding the Short Breaks Service offering, to support more families and young people with a variety of choice and cohort-based opportunities including after school clubs. The Hub allows the expansion of activities throughout the week, term-time, and during school holidays, evenings and weekends.

About the role:

The Hub and Short Breaks Operations Manager will be responsible for the day-to-day management of the service, plus take the lead in the growth and development of the service to maximize the reach and opportunities for young people within the community. The role will ensure the service is compliant with Ofsted, offers a varied timetable with clear criteria for each club or activity, undertaking referrals and assessments and working collaboratively with wider Norwood colleagues to flex, grow and change to meet the ever-changing needs of the community.

Benefits at Norwood include:

- The opportunity to work for a leading UK charity
- Competitive salary & benefits package
- 21 days annual leave plus 8 bank holidays and Jewish festivals where they fall on a working day and work is not permitted (FTE)
- Workplace Pension Scheme: Plan for your future with confidence.
- Employee Assistance Programme: We care about your well-being.
- £300 When You Introduce a Friend: Spread the word and reap the rewards.
- Free Eye test & Eyewear allowance
- Access to 'Blue Light' discount scheme
- Cycle to work scheme
- Excellent career progression pathway
- Enhanced benefits coming in July 2025

Essential skills and experience:

- Significant experience of working with neurodivergent children, young people and parents/carers and of facilitating an inclusive child-centred service
- Experience of working in partnership with other agencies and organisations, with awareness of the support and advice which may be offered
- Recent experience of managing contract compliance with a demonstrable knowledge of regulatory frameworks (Ofsted, CQC contract compliance etc) and how to put these into practice
- An appropriate qualification at Level 3 or equivalent
- Knowledge and understanding of the range of interventions and approaches that can be used to support disabled children and young people
- An understanding of various communication aids including Makaton, PECS, AAC etc
- Knowledge and understanding of safeguarding policies and procedures
- Excellent communication skills with a flexible style to communicate with people in a form and manner that is consistent with their level of understanding, culture, background and preferred ways of communicating
- Excellent time management. Listening and problem solving skills who can work under pressure to meet deadlines
- Flexibility, initiative and the ability to respond appropriately to child and family needs
- Embraces change and responds positively to new opportunities
- Motivates colleagues to understand the importance of inclusion and encourage them to improve standards of inclusive practice
- Designing and delivering innovative sessions to support neurodivergent young people to develop new skills in a fun and safe environment
- Experience using observation to inform assessment and planning
