Question & Answers with PaJeS

What does PaJeS do?

PaJeS provides strategic direction, support and services for Jewish schools around the UK. PaJeS works closely with school leaders and governmental bodies, delivering the highest quality guidance, support, programming and training, designed to engender excellence in our schools.

Who does PaJeS support?

PaJeS works with schools across the country supporting teaching and non-teaching staff, ranging from Headteachers to senior leaders, Jewish Studies and Ivrit staff, wellbeing practitioners, office managers, bursars, Governors and more. We currently have 25 forums offering advice and updates to our schools and enabling them to share their experience with one another as well. During the pandemic this has been particularly appreciated.

PaJeS in numbers?

PaJeS supports more than 80 Jewish schools, over 500 Governors and Headteachers and over 35,000 children. Our events for parents have been attended by over 1,000 and there have been over 8,000 hits on our schools' jobs vacancy website.

How does PaJeS advocate for our schools?

PaJeS defends the rights of faith schools, assists in protecting the ethos of Jewish schools and is seen as a valued contributor to policy making. We work closely with government bodies such as the DfE and Ofsted, the House of Commons Select Committee and staff at No 10 Downing Street. Most recently we have liaised with these bodies in order to address the worrying increase in anti-Semitic incidents in schools.

How has the COVID-19 Pandemic affected your work?

Through the pandemic PaJeS has provided indispensable support for schools. A panel of expert doctors have guided schools on public health issues and leading wellbeing experts have advised on the best approach to support children and teachers. Schools have had to re-design the delivery of education and PaJeS has trained schools in the integration of blended learning, which utilises the best aspects of remote and face to face learning.

Why is your fundraising campaign so essential?

Like all charities our funding has been reduced by our inability to hold events, in our case, the Jewish Schools Awards for which we raise sponsorship. Hence we are appealing for community support over 13th and 14th June with a 36-hour campaign to raise essential funds to enable us to continue to support schools in the most effective way. Thank you for your support.

www.charityextra.com/pajes

"I am in awe of the way that the PaJeS team has created a highly impressive raft of support services for schools, covering so many facets. And how on top of that you proactively look for even more creative ways to support and motivate us all and keep up our morale"

Rabbi Yitzchak Freeman, Headteacher,
Avigdor Hirsh Torah Temimah Primary School
