Summary of the Brochure

My Friends and Precious Compassionate Brothers, Please Come Close and Hear my Story

We have been waiting Close to 20 years to hear the precious cries of an infant, followed by the wonderful words, "Mami and Tati." The pain and loneliness is unbearable.

And there are many others in our situation. I have now taken upon myself the advice of the greatest Torah leaders of our generation and have established a charity organization, Chasdai Menashe, that supports couples who do not have children yet. We help them financially and emotionally, guiding them with complete professional assistance and accompaniment through the entire process of their treatment.

The great Torah sage, Rabbi Chaim Kanievsky, Zatzal, directed me to publish a book of my Torah insights. He said that one's Torah insights are his spiritual children, and that through bringing to light my spiritual children, I would merit also to physical children, ב"ט.

I ask you, not only for my sake, but for the sake of all those couples crying out from their pained hearts, to please be generous partners in either one of these projects, Chasdai Menashe, or the publication of my book.

In that merit you will have, ב"ט, children and grandchildren who will be involved in Torah and mitzvot, bringing you endless happiness and nachas.

To facilitate donations, I have a credit card machine along with a federal tax ID number. Or you can take an envelope and send your donation later.

Thanking you very much, your friend,
