What's in it for me?

As well as improving the lives of others, volunteering with Hand in Hand is fulfilling and proven to fuel personal growth, enhancing self-confidence, resilience and life skills.

Why do people need my help?

Just around the corner from you, hidden from view, is a family who is struggling. The needs that our volunteers address are always authentic, and the impact of their involvement can be life-changing.

I can't possibly make a difference.

Everyone has the ability to make a difference to those around them, and our teens are often the ones who find it the hardest to see this within themselves. Hand in Hand helps to bring their innate giving potential to light.

IT'S A TRAGEDY

She was so young. They talk about what a devoted mother she was, how she was always home to greet her children, how she pushed herself to work on the side to help provide for them. They don't talk about who will do that now that she's gone and her husband will have to stop working.

CST PROTECTING THE KEHILLA

WISHING YOU A CHAG KASHER V'SAMEACH

The majority of CST's funding comes from private donations from across the community

CST has a suggested list of several commercial security guarding companies available to our mosdos

Commercial security guards are SIA licensed, and are briefed by CST to have an understanding of the Kehilla and counter-terrorism

CST's National Security Control Centre is connected to schools and mosdos, serving to protect the Kehilla

CST continues to train further security volunteers

CST liaises with community partners and police for the security of the Kehilla

He's the most devoted Tatty. He gives shoulder rides and baths and takes them to school. When he works, he's doing it for them. He funds their art classes and shoes and endless amounts of food. But then he's gone — and so is everything else. He was the most devoted Tatty, they sigh.

IS IT UP TO US?

Eretz HaKodesh was founded to protect the kedusha of Eretz Yisroel.

We're a party in the WZC—a powerful board made up of Jewish representatives from around the world that are dominated by people who often challenge our Torah values, disregard the kedusha of Eretz Yisroel, and control huge sums of money that determine the values and way of life in Eretz Yisroel.

With your vote, we can stand up for Torah values and mesorah - like protecting the Kosel, geirus, shemiras shabbos, kashrus standards, and much more—and help direct millions of dollars to support yeshivos, seminaries, and frum mosdos across Eretz Yisroel and the world—ensuring that the future of Yiddishkeit in Eretz Yisroel remains strong!

I issue a public request to the Tzibbur of Shomrei Torah U'Mitzvos that they should make every effort to vote for the Eretz Hakodesh movement.

May the Desire of Hashem be successful in their hand, to bring about an increase in Torah. And at the very least to prevent its desecration.
