KERESZTÚR
TOKAJI
LATE HARVEST
2021

The Keresztúr Tokaji is a signature late harvest wine which is crisp, lively & smooth. This subtly balanced light straw wine exudes the charms of the historic Tokaj region and its typical grape, elaborated through its time-honoured methods of winemaking. This wine is not only from an esteemed, historic wine estate, but also the surroundings of the famous village of Bodrogkeresztúr, which is a place of reverence, as it was the home of an iconic Saint and Sage, The holy Reb Shayele Kerestirer zt"l

AAC Wish You An Appy Purim

Making Your Giving Even Easier

We're always looking to make charitable giving as quick and simple as possible. All Achisomoch (AAC) account holders can now download our new, redesigned AAC app.

The App gives instant secure access to your account and includes handy features like Quicksan, donating by simply scanning charities' QR codes – just the thing for Purim!

Don't Have an AAC Account?

Not to worry, visit www.achisomoch.org and over 40 years' experience delivering safe, simple giving is just a click away. All AAC profits go to local and UK charities.

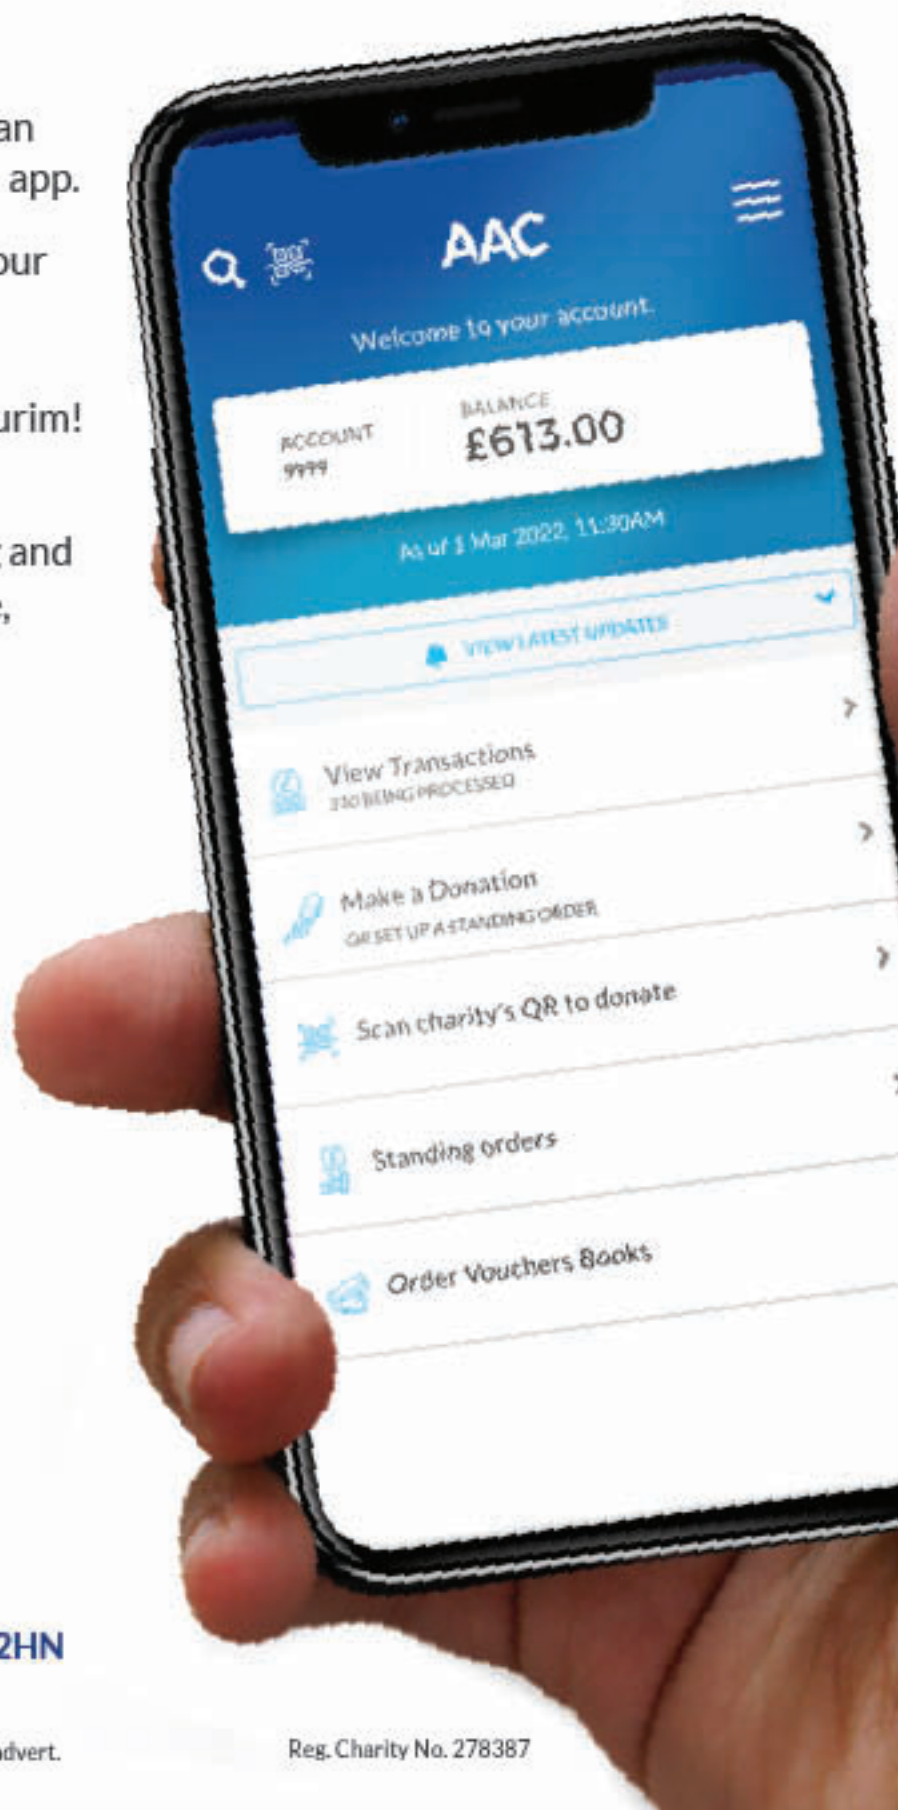

A Special Offer: Helping You to Give More This Purim

Download the redesigned AAC app now and as well as being able to manage your giving whether you're at home or out and about, this Purim (16th-18th March) we'll add an extra 5% to all donations made via QR codes.

SCAN ME

Download the app now - search for 'Achisomoch' on:

Warning: Myth Alert!

I'm so confused. Why is my baby crying? Why aren't they sleeping? I'm out of my depth – I'm an awful mother!

Let's Bust:

Bonding Myth Number 2

It's all too easy to feel you're a bad mother if you don't live up to unrealistic ideals. In reality, everyone has to find their way with a new baby, even if it's not their first. Each baby is unique.

Babies don't come with an instruction manual, so parents have to learn to read the cues their individual baby gives. They have to learn how babies express their needs, for example, the many reasons a baby might cry besides being hungry. Without observant, attuned, and loving attention, babies will struggle to develop much-needed feelings of security and safety.

Motherhood can be a joy, so Menucha's support, advice, and therapy like Parent-Infant Psychotherapy (PIP), are all designed to help parents form a healthy attachment with their baby.

www.menucha.info

Under the guidance of Rabbi S F Zimmerman and endorsed by local Rabbonim.

Menucha is here to provide understanding, non-judgmental advice, specialised therapy services, and referrals.

WHAT GOES INTO RUNNING SHABBAT WALK?

Our annual budget for 2021 was £300,000

Regular commitment to volunteering improves mental health and encourages teenagers to think of others, to be caring, patient and generous. While they are growing in character, they are also providing much needed help in the community.

MORNING'S TORAHWAY SHIUR IN GOLDERS GREEN LONDON, DELIVERED BY RABBI YISSOCHER FRAND SHLITA

Written by Reb Doody Rosenberg

An impressive attendance congregated at Torah Way Golders Green Tuesday morning to be enthralled by words of inspiration presented by Harav Yissocher Frand Shlita, the Rosh Yeshiva of Ner Yisrael Baltimore.

The very title of his speech was a prodding and concerning question, Are We Feeling the Pain of our Brothers and Sisters in Ukraine? clearly pointed to a possibility that we don't. And of course, every burning bush. This proved him having leadership qualities that the Aibshter sought.

The concluding story of Natan Sharansky illustrating ironically how the world has changed since Communist Russia. At a Sheva Berachos, he described the fear of having "Jew" stamped into a passport, which spelled ridicule, persecution and plain anti-Semitism, although the passport bearer would have little clue of the religion that he one of us is confronted by the nagging question why we don't.

However, in sourcing examples and proofs ranging from Tanach to contemporary giants of Jewry, there existed a common thread: caring for and sharing the pain of others is a dominant and supreme characteristic of the RBSHO. As we are obligated to emulate His ways this is our Chiyuv D'Oraysa of being Nosai B'ol Chaveiro, sharing in the plight of one's fellow Jews.

Rebbetzin Kotler, z"l, never took sugar in her tea for the entire duration of WWII. Harav Shach z"tl, slept with his head off the pillow during the Gulf War. Reaching into Torah sources, Moshe Rabbeinu, the greatest leader and prophet in Klal Yisrael, was epitomised by this Middah of caring for others-even a sheep- manifested itself by the was branded with. This very "J" proved to be the salvation of Jewish people fleeing Ukraine in the last fortnight and with this pride, Reb Yissochor awakened within us the hope and aspiration for the footsteps of Moshiach when, again, the Jewish Nation will be the envy of the entire world.

Setting an example, he ended at exactly 9:00 a.m., although the enraptured audience would have contentedly stayed and listened to him for a lot longer. Great credit and admiration is due to TorahWay's Duddy Iczkovits and Josh Frankel for their unstinting and indefatigable efforts in providing new and stimulating speakers every week.

The shiur can be watched or heard in www.torahway.org.uk or via Kol Haloshon (1,9,3)

יפי מנחת

This day has a great segulah that our prayers should be accepted in the merit of Mordechai and Esther. Anyone who needs Heaven's mercy in a certain matter... should take out time on the day of Taanis Esther and first recite the 22nd chapter of Tehillim. Ayeleu Hashachar. Then he should pour out his words before Hashem, and make his request, and mention the merit of Mordechai and Esther... His prayer will be received with favor.
