RENOWNED MONSEY EDUCATOR

Chany Rosengarten Brings Her Retreat to the English Countryside

Women from London and across the UK and Europe are invited to a unique three-day retreat this November.

For years, women across Europe have followed the teachings of Mrs Chany Rosengarten from afar, reading her books, listening to her inspiring messages and drawing strength from her guidance on marriage, relationships and personal growth.

This November, they will have a rare opportunity to experience her work in person. Mrs Rosengarten, the renowned Monsey-based educator and founder of Woman of Valor, will be bringing her celebrated retreat to England for the very first time, from Monday 9th to Wednesday 11th November 2026, coinciding with Rosh Chodesh Kislev.

The exclusive three-day retreat will take place at a private countryside estate approximately one hour outside London, surrounded by over 40 acres of beautiful farmland and lakeside grounds.

Designed to offer women a peaceful escape from the demands of everyday life, the retreat will provide an intimate and supportive environment in which participants can reconnect with themselves, reflect and recharge.

With nearly a decade of experience teaching and mentoring thousands of women, Mrs Rosengarten has become widely recognised for her heartfelt and practical approach to personal development, marriage and emotional wellbeing. She is the founder of Woman of Valor, Hearts on Fire and The Money Tree Shefa, and the author of The Boundary Is You and Promise Me Jerusalem.

Having already hosted more than twenty retreats, attracting women from around the world, Mrs Rosengarten is now bringing this transformative experience closer to home for women in the UK and Europe.

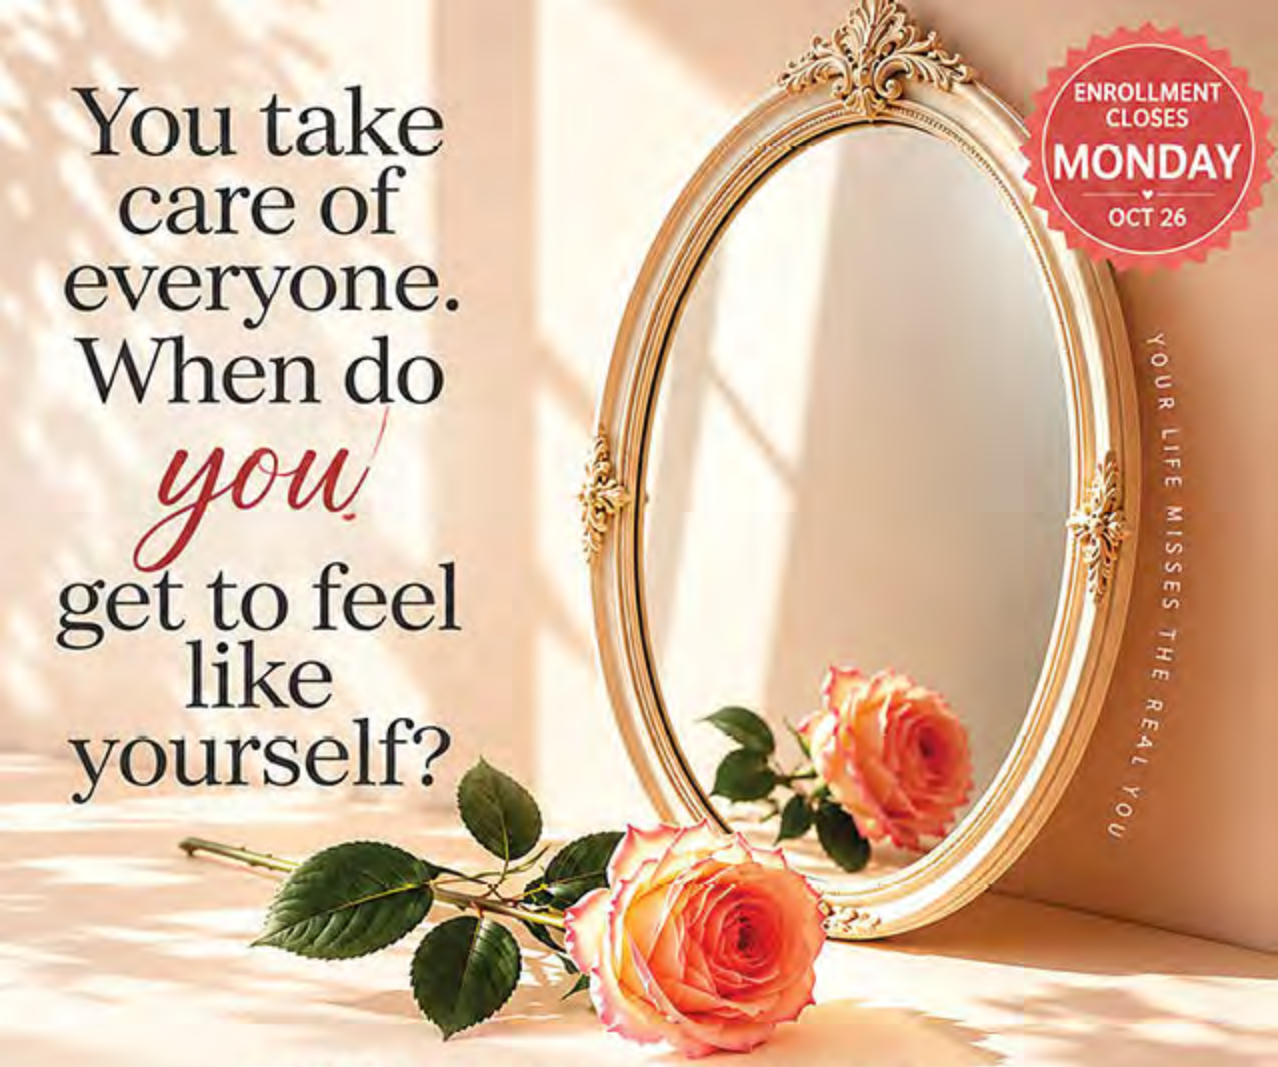

The programme will feature a carefully planned combination of inspiring workshops, breathwork, meditation, singing, dancing and creative activities, all designed to encourage connection, self-discovery and personal growth. Accommodation, meals and all activities are included, allowing participants to fully immerse themselves in the experience without the usual responsibilities and distractions of daily life.

> "When a woman gives herself permission to slow down and reconnect with who she really is, everything else in her life — her marriage, her family, her work — gets to rise to meet her."
> Mrs Chany Rosengarten

Past participants have described the retreats as deeply meaningful experiences, providing a rare opportunity to feel understood, supported and free to reflect openly. "I joined the retreat to come home to myself," shared one previous attendee.

The organisers have deliberately limited the number of participants to preserve the personal and intimate atmosphere for which these retreats have become known. For women unable to attend in person, Mrs Rosengarten also offers her live online Woman of Valor programme, accessible worldwide via Zoom.

With the retreat now less than three weeks away, registration is open and places are limited.

- Stop measuring your worth by how much you do for everyone else.

Uncle Benjy's BAG OF Laughs

It's 1943, and two members of the Jewish resistance, Avi and Moishe, are on a mission to assassinate Hitler. They conceal themselves high on a mountain, overlooking a road where they know Hitler is driven in an open-top car at two o'clock every afternoon. Avi is concentrating on the road through the sights of his snipers' rifle; Moishe is scanning the distance with binoculars.

Two o'clock comes and goes, and there's no sign of Hitler's car. By two-fifteen, the men are getting nervous.

"But I don't understand it," says Avi, "he's always so punctual."

"Yes, I know", replies Moishe, "I hope he's okay..."

An American tourist was riding in a taxi in Israel. As the taxi approached a red light, the tourist was shocked to see the driver drive straight through without even slowing down. Surprised as he was, he didn't say anything, feeling himself a guest and not wanting to make waves.

The trip continued without event until the next intersection. This time the light was green, and, to the American's dismay, the cab driver brought the vehicle to a grinding halt.

Unable to contain his astonishment, he turned to the driver. "Listen," he said, "when you went through the red light, I didn't say anything. But why on earth are you stopping at a green light?"

The Israeli driver looked at the American as if he were deranged. "Are you for real?" he shouted. "The other guy has a red light. Do you want to get us killed?"

Brought to you by Uncle Benjy, author of Laughter is the Best Medicine: Kosher and Jewish Jokes for the Whole Family, volumes one, two, and a newly released volume three, and Jewish Joke Book for Kids, volumes one and two, available on Amazon; search "Uncle Benjy" on Amazon.
