KOSHER KINGDOM

SUPERMARKET

We would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to the London Fire Brigade and the Metropolitan Police for their outstanding response and tireless effort during last week's fire.

We are also incredibly grateful for the many messages, offers of assistance, and kind words we have received from customers, friends, and members of the community. The support has been truly overwhelming and means a great deal to us.

We understand the inconvenience this situation has caused and are trying to put a short-term solution in place while progressing with restoring "Kosher Kingdom" once again.

We remain committed to serving the community, and will continue to keep you updated as progress is made.

Thank you for your continued support.

Menucha Case #781

Leah's serious postnatal depression meant she couldn't be left alone in case she acted on her suicidal thoughts.

Menucha's rapid specialist intervention and work with emergency services kept Leah and her baby safe and supported until her recovery.

RABBI REPHOEL RISS

A SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT
THE KEVER OF A GREAT TZADDIK

A few weeks ago, in the local news publication distributed throughout Golders Green and Hendon, there was an advert about Rabbi Rephoel Riss. It stated that people who visited his kever on his yahrzeit saw their prayers answered.

Upon searching his name, I discovered that he was born in France in 1728. He later became Chief Rabbi of Endingen in Switzerland. He passed away on the 25th of Iyar, 1813, and is buried in the Endingen-Lengnau Cemetery in Switzerland. Much more information about him can be found online.

I was also forwarded a video published on YouTube by Rabbi Daniel Glatstein. In the video, he enters the cemetery and walks through it until reaching the kever of Rabbi Riss and his son, who is buried beside him.

Rabbi Glatstein mentions a teshuvah of the Chasam Sofer in Choshen Mishpat, Siman 21, in which the Chasam Sofer writes very warmly about Rabbi Riss, describing him as a man of great wisdom and yiras Shamayim, and noting that the place where he is buried is very holy.

One does not even need to leave home to read the full teshuvah, as it can be downloaded from Sefaria.

TU B'AV
(15th Av)

SPECIAL TU B'AV DAY TRIP TO SWITZERLAND

On the special day of Tu B'Av (15th Av), IYH, I with some other people will be flying with me to Switzerland to visit the kever of Rabbi Riss on a day trip.

We hope to gather a minyan at his kever and invite others to join us for this unique opportunity.

On paper, I'm exactly where I'm supposed to be. I have my marriage, two beautiful kids and a home. It's what I always wanted.

But somewhere between the routines and responsibilities, I disappeared. My days are full, yet I feel empty. I love being a Mommy and a Wife, yet I barely recognise myself anymore.

I'm exhausted being what everyone needs.
I'm exhausted pretending I'm okay.

I'm Adina.

I have hope. I have a future.

You're still you, even when things are hard. You don't have to handle this alone.

THIS IS CHANOCHI

HE IS PROUD TO SAY
"THIS IS MY LIFE"

Chanochi is 16 and full of life, laughter and determination - but his journey hasn't always been easy.

There was a time when reading felt impossible, when confidence was hard to find. Through Kisharon Langdon, everything began to change. With patient teachers by his side at Wohl Campus Kisharon Noé School, and encouragement even on his toughest days, Chanochi discovered belief in himself.

Today, he proudly shares his progress, surrounded by friends who celebrate him for who he is. His humour lights up every room, and his resilience drives him forward. Step by step, he has found his place, his confidence and his future.
