THE VISION

WE EXPRESS OUR DEEPEST APPRECIATION TO:

The 52 Rabbonim of NW London, who united to endorse this initiative and guide the kehilla with clarity and strength.

The 22 Founding Patrons, whose early generosity and sense of responsibility inspire others to follow.

The first 500 families, who recognised the urgency of the moment and stepped forward with conviction to help secure our children's future.

In the words of the Rabbonim of NW London, in their public call to action:

"May the special זכות of a kehilla-wide approach – in which everyone can participate – enable our תמקות של בית רבן to reach their potential and be a שמירה for the entire kehilla."

THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING.

Join the kehilla-wide effort to dedicate 20% of your tzedakah to support our local schools.

Future changes to maternity and neonatal services

You may have heard that there will be some changes in the future to maternity and neonatal services for residents who live in Barnet, Camden, Enfield, Haringey, and Islington.

As part of the changes, the maternity and neonatal services at the Royal Free Hospital will close in several years' time.

For now, these services are still open and accepting new bookings until further notice.

Women who are already booked into the Royal Free Hospital for their antenatal care are encouraged to attend their appointments as usual.
