Royal free hospital shabbos room

We would like to inform the public that despite our dedicated volunteers maintaining and restocking the Shabbos room in Royal Free Hospital at least 3 times a week with large quantities of food and supplies at a considerable cost, it has come to our attention that the room is being consistently ransacked. This unfortunate situation results in an inadequate service for those who are most reliant on this facility.

In light of this, we kindly request that anyone who notices suspicious activity or individuals taking unusually large amounts of provisions from the Shabbos room, to notify the chaplaincy and/or hospital security immediately.

Additionally, we urge you to follow up by email to shabbosrooms@ezraumarpeh.org or via WhatsApp to Ezra Umarpeh on 020 8211 7999.

*Thank you for your

FINE ART EXHIBIT

We aim to tell the story of Jewish Women's Aid and what they do at a deeper level whilst championing Jewish female artists. Here we have 5 testimonies of domestic abuse and empowerment from JWA.

A Physical Abuse Survivor
A Sexual Violence Survivor
A Coercive Control Survivor
A Post-Separation Abuse Survivor
A Woman who still Lives with Her Perpetrator

16 Jewish female artists have read these lived experiences, and each has chosen a story that resonated with them.

Some on a more personal level than others.

With that intent, they have donated an artwork created especially to be exhibited and sold at HerSpace.

The entirety of the funds will go directly to JWA, along with the tickets, raffles and a percentage of vendor revenue.
