Two ornate silver candlesticks are shown against a dark blue, textured background. The candlestick on the left is taller and more elaborate, featuring a wide, fluted base with intricate scrollwork, a long, slender stem with a textured pattern, and a decorative collar. The candlestick on the right is shorter and simpler, with a similar but less detailed base and stem. Both have ornate, multi-tiered candle holders at the top.

מקוה טהרה

"It's so painful to even talk about...but our Shabbos table has had an empty place for months now, because my son chooses to hang out with his so-called friends, even on Shabbos. I hosted a party for Mikvah Taharah Association, and things have improved steadily since then, Baruch Hashem. Our Shabbos table is now complete..."
