Sarah's Story

Sarah has a large young family. When Sarah came to LJFC, she seemed like a mum who had it all together.

One summer, a friend of Sarah's asked if we would be able to help with Summer camp placements for Sarah's kids, as there were problems at home. Scholarships and placements were arranged.

It took until the end of the summer until we realised the full extent of Sarah's troubles. One day she collapsed in a heap of tears in the Centre's office, revealing that her husband was abusive, and she did not know how she could go home.

The staff at the Centre immediately started to put a plan together.

Emotional support as well as practical advice was given to Sarah from the day, she revealed to us that her life and the lives of her children were in turmoil.

The Centre did our due diligence, this was genuine case. Many aspects of Sarah & her children lives needed to be reorganised, new options needed to be found to ensure the physical and emotional safety of them all.

The Centre worked with other Organisations in the community to help Sarah put a plan in place.

Sarah & her children left the marital home with little more than the clothing they were wearing.

The family was traumatised and scared, the Centre was with them every step of the way, holding them all through this stressful and emotional time.

Our Staff helped Sarah with all the different agencies that had been approached to assist her. She was gently guided with care through the minefield of legal, financial and support systems.

It took months, 3 moves and many 'Angels', as well as all the Community's Agencies working together. Sarah and her children were settled in a new home. Every aspect was thought about, from furniture, clothing, food and household goods, toys, therapy for Sarah & her children.

Sarah & her children have now emerged from their traumatised lives to be happier, more secure, and emotionally stable.

There are no organisations that are "a one stop shop". The Centre's strength is pulling all the strands together, assessing resources and giving the emotional support that is so desperately needed during a crisis.

The OR De La Castinelle wines have a beautiful bright pale orange color while the nose is floral and pleasant. In the mouth, tangy notes and very simple fruity aromas are revealed. The sensation is natural and light while a pleasant freshness develops as well as spicy notes on the finish.
