IF YOU ARE MARRIED
Then Look The Part!

Everyone knows that a married Jewish woman must cover her hair. But recent trends are making it obvious that many people don't know the reason for the mitzvah: To look married.

SADLY, LACE-CAP, FRONT AND TOP WIGS DON'T ALLOW THEIR WEARERS TO MEET THIS BASIC HALACHIC REQUIREMENT. DOZENS OF LEADING RABBONIM WORLDWIDE HAVE RECENTLY ISSUED A CLEAR PSAK AGAINST WEARING THESE WIGS.

פסק הלכה מאת מורנו הגאון הגדול
ר' פסח אליהו פאלק זצ"ל
LACE TOP & LACE FRONT SHEITELS
 ל"ג בעומר תשפ"א לפ"ק

We have been asked to record our father זצ"ל's opinion concerning lace top and lace front sheitels. Our father זצ"ל spoke in public on numerous occasions, during the last few weeks of his life, about the serious breach in the חיוב הראש by the wearing of lace top sheitels. The last occasion being on Sunday night טבת ב"ב, a mere few hours before his פטירה.

Our father זצ"ל explained: The Torah requires a married woman to conceal her hair in a way that it is immediately apparent that one is not seeing her true hair.

This can only be accomplished by a sheitel which is clearly recognisable as a sheitel. Therefore, he stated clearly and categorically, it is absolutely Ossur to wear a lace top sheitel or a lace front sheitel which have been designed to trick the onlookers into thinking that they are seeing her own hair. We can testify that this issue ached and pained our father's heart during the last few weeks of his life, as he viewed it as a mockery of the Mitzvah and an extremely serious departure from the דבר הותרה.

קודם ודחונו על אשר שמענו שלחמנוהו מרץ שנים החלילו ללך עם משה נביא הושיעיה באומן שנוצרת כמסורת שוראש, ואין מידי כלל אם הולכת עם פיהם נבדק, ונבר הווי כל עולי הווי שלפניו (ו) בא"י וכן בחילוף ואף למסוריהם מה נבדק חוץ וכן באומן שיעור שהוא בראש נביא, אבל באומן הרב חיי הוא אסור בהנחלת.

Recently, women have begun wearing wigs that appear as if they are growing out of their wearer's head, and are not recognizable as wigs. Gedolei hador of the past who have permitted wigs did so on condition that they are clearly recognisable as such. We are not ruling this time on the general appearance of

Any wig featuring a LACE CAP (even when lined) / LACE FRONT and any variation of such wigs, under any name is FORBIDDEN.

According to halachah, it is forbidden to recite a davar kedushah in their presence.

We are also informing all wig manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers that it is forbidden to conduct business involving lace front/lace cap wigs, and those who do so are considered machatel harabim – people who cause the public to sin. Those who cease to sell these wigs will be greatly blessed with all the brachos in the Torah and will succeed in all their endeavours. In the merit of the acceptance of these qedarim in tznius, may you merit to raise doros yesharim meovorachim.

A married woman is obligated to cover her hair - it is the crown of her glory. Currently certain types of new Shaitels are being imported to our town. They are called "open lace" and (full) "lace top" Shaitels. They look so natural that one can literally not recognize that a shaitel is beige worn. We are hereby publicizing that if someone wears this type of headcovering she is not fulfilling the obligation of covering her hair.

THEY MAY NEITHER BE BOUGHT NOR WORN!

Those who are careful should distance themselves from dealing with these Shaitels. There are constantly new kinds of shaitels being presented to the public and one must learn the halacha, in order to know right from wrong. In this zechus she will merit an abundance of Brocho and Hatzlecho.

I was shocked to see that shatels are being worn which look completely natural and it is not possible to see that a head covering is being worn. One should certainly work to explain the issue inherent in these lace top wigs so that everyone should know to be careful and to refrain from buying.

OPEN LACE AND (FULL) LACE TOP WIGS

One who is scrupulous and guards his soul will not sell such wigs.

A HEARTFELT PLEA Erase the Lace!

פסק הלכה מאת גדולי ארץ ישראל בענין LACETOP SHEITELS

The opinion of the Gedolei Hador has already been published that those women who wear a wig to cover their head, must make sure that the wig does not look like natural hair, but it is noticeable that it is a wig.

And now we come to make people aware about the new loophole in wigs of the "lace top" sheitel type made in such a way that the hair seems to come out of the head and is done of course so that it is not noticeable that it is a wig.

The Torah says "and there shall not be seen in you the shame of anything" from this rule it is implicit that those who keep within the bounds of tzniyus are merit the Shechinah and will have sons and daughters who walk in the way of the Torah and also merit abundance of brocho and hatzlocho and good for them now and in the future.

Dozens of Rabbonim have just issued a clear psak against the wigs. Their cry is unanimous. Lace cap, front and top wigs are assur. It makes no difference if you are Chassidish or Litvish, Ashkenazi or Sephardic. This is daas Torah.

Daas Torah

מאת גדולי רבני ארץ ישראל

It is well known that the traits of holiness and modesty are the hallmarks of the Jewish people, especially modesty in dress and conduct. However, to our great distress, the level of Tzniyus has deteriorated lately especially in regard to married women covering their head with wigs. Our sages have taught us that as long as there is holiness and modesty, the Shechina is manifest in our community to protect and rescue us from all enemies and suffering. (Sotah 3b and Midrash Rabba Kadoshim).

Now, since due to our great sins, there has been a widening breach of Tzniyus and married women have started going about in WIGS THAT LOOK AS IF THEY ARE WEARING THEIR OWN NATURAL HAIR AND AS IF THEY ARE BAREHEADED, CHAS VESHOLOM. INCLUDING THE WIGS KNOWN AS LACE FRONT / LACE TOPS WHICH ARE MADE SO IT APPEARS THAT THE HAIR IS GROWING FROM THE HEAD ETC

We deem it our duty to make our holy Torah's opinion known - that all of this is completely forbidden, without any heter or leniency. Even in places where it is customary to permit wigs, it was never intended to permit the wearing of such wigs to the point where there is no visible difference between married and single women.

To our distress, it appears that a great part of this decline is caused by wig vendors who persuade and tempt women, and brides before their weddings. We hereby give warning to all those who sell immodest wigs that they are causing the public to stumble and are therefore in the category of Mesaiya Lidvar Aveila - those who assist other in perpetrating a sin.

It is our חוב to make the ציבור fully aware that some sheitels being sold currently are אסור מן הדין to wear.

...It is therefore obvious that we have two grave issurim with the to אסור latest design of LACE-CAP sheitels, so they are categorically אסור be worn. Likewise, LACE FRONT sheitels may not be worn.
