... Weather the Storm of Mental Health Challenges

Book now at projectlily.org.uk

We know there are stormy times ahead.

Covid, conflict in Ukraine and beyond, economic pressures, employment insecurity...we're facing unprecedented levels of uncertainty and anxiety – key drivers of mental ill health. Project Lily's FREE online training equips you with vital skills to respond to mental health issues before they escalate. Our CPD accredited courses are delivered via Zoom by our Clinical Director, Jonathan Dove (B.Sc. M.A. MBACP Reg; Member EMDR UK).

Topics: Mental health basics • Stress • Anxiety • Depression • PTSD • Self-care

Our approach:

We Train...

People learn to identify and rapidly respond to common mental health issues.

We Support...

Our trainees, guided by our clinical team, support others (and themselves) with practical help before issues escalate.

We Treat...

More severe cases are rapidly assessed and referred for appropriate therapy.

HEAR OUR URGENT PLEA THIS ROSH HASHANAH

MAKING A DIFFERENCE
FOR SERIOUSLY
ILL CHILDREN

For many families coping with serious childhood illness, the increasing cost of living following two very difficult pandemic years, is really hitting them hard.

The care needs of a seriously ill child put a huge practical, financial and emotional burden on parents who already have so much to worry about. With your support this Rosh Hashanah, Camp Simcha can make a vital difference.

Please help us be their lifeline.

“

I'll never forget sitting on the phone to my Family Liaison Officer Mandy, unloading all my stresses and worries and her telling me all the ways Camp Simcha could help. Without them I dread to think of how we'd have crawled our way to where we are now. Their support was vital."

Nikki, mum to Joey, who had a Wilms' Tumour
