T&Cs apply.

Simple to set-up. Easy to use.

Transfer money into your AAC account and then use the online portal, app, paper vouchers or cards to make donations to local and international charities.

Thousands of people in NW London and beyond use AAC. Here's why:

Give and gain: For every eligible deposit, we'll claim the Gift Aid and deposit it into your account. That means you'll get an extra £25 to donate for every £100 you deposit.

Easily keep track of your giving: Know who you've given to, when and how much.

Quickly donate to online charity campaigns: Donate in seconds using funds in your AAC account.

AAC is a non-profit registered charity. 100% of our annual surplus is donated to educational causes, including over £1.5 million last year to schools, Torah and chinuch across NW London.

Part-Time Family Support Worker
17.5 hours per week

The Family Support Worker role involves working within the Jewish community to provide targeted support to children and families. The Family Support Worker will focus on supporting the mental health, emotional wellbeing, and educational outcomes of children up to 18 years of age. This role requires expertise in managing the social and emotional challenges faced by children and families and the ability to develop professional partnerships with statutory and community bodies where applicable.

Requirements:

- A minimum of five years' experience in social work or child related professions.
- Strong knowledge of safeguarding and child protection protocols.
- Have own car to carry out work related responsibilities.
- Degree-level qualifications.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including report writing. Proficiency in IT and standard office software.
- Ability to work as part of a team.

Benefits of the Role:

- Flexible working hours.
- Opportunities for training and continuing professional development.
- Remuneration according to experience.
- Working within an experienced, dynamic team.

If you are passionate about supporting families throughout the Jewish community and have the necessary skills and experience, we encourage you to apply.
