A photograph of a restaurant table setting. In the foreground, a white plate holds a dish of sliced meat, roasted vegetables, and arugula. To the left of the plate are two silver forks. In the background, there is a glass of water, a glass of red wine, and another plate with food. A white napkin is folded and placed to the right of the plate. Pruzbul 5782/2022

At the conclusion of the year 5782 on this coming Erev Rosh Hashono (Sunday evening, 25/09/22), the Shemitta year draws to an end. At this time, all outstanding debts owed by Jewish borrowers to Jewish lenders will be cancelled. If monies are owed, the lender may no longer claim them. This is referred to as Shemittas Kesofim.

The only way in which it is permissible to reclaim a debt from a Jewish borrower after this date is by making a "Pruzbul" before the onset of Yom Tov on Sunday 25th September.

According to many Poskim, one should be particular to make a Pruzbul in the presence of an established Beis Din. For this reason the Federation Beis Din will be holding sessions to arrange Pruzbuls (see flyer).

For instances where a person can not attend a Pruzbul session in Beis Din, the following procedure applies:

1. Detach this form
2. Fill in the name of the person making the Pruzbul and date in the appropriate gaps.
3. Make the Pruzbul declaration (that appears in bold above) in front of three adult Jewish males, who for the purposes of this Pruzbul will serve as dayanim.
4. These three "dayanim" sign the Pruzbul
5. The Pruzbul is kept by the person making the declaration.

Please note, there are various relevant Halachos regarding Pruzbul. For further information please see www.federation.org.uk/pruzbul

פרוזבול - PRUZBUL

It is highly recommended that every individual arranges for a Pruzbul to be signed before the forthcoming Rosh Hashonoh, even if you are not aware of anyone who owes you money.

Although many rely on the Halachic opinion that the Pruzbul can be arranged in the presence of any three men, there is a significant body of opinion that holds that the Pruzbul should be arranged by an established kehillah Beis Din.
