THERE'S NO NEED TO WAIT
FOR IT TO DEFROST ANYMORE

Do you think your child may struggle with any of these areas?

Would you like to understand more about how your child learns and why there are areas in which he/she struggles?

- Memory
- Literacy
- Maths
- Attention
- Understanding
- Organisation
- Auditory processing
- Senses
- Emotions and feelings
- Time management
- Physical co-ordination

We can assess both Kodesh and Chol to gain a better understanding of how your child learns and how he/she can achieve their potential. We have over 20 years' experience assessing and providing strategies to support children both at home and at school.

ShabbatWalk

Volunteering • Giving • Changing Lives

London & Manchester

www.charityextra.com/shabbatwalk

Volunteering • Giving • Changing Lives

London & Manchester

Why is Shabbat Walk an essential service in our community?

Additional Needs | Mental Health | Single Parent
Extenuating Circumstances

I had been struggling for a while and always knew that there were young people in my community who could help me but didn't know how to find them. Then my friend suggested I reach out to Shabbat Walk and they have been able to send me regular, amazing help which has literally been a lifesaver.

~ Recipient

I wanted my child to develop a love of chesed, but as a mother, I had various concerns about my child going to volunteer in strangers' homes. One of the Family Liaison Officers at Shabbat Walk called me to explain all the safeguarding checks which they have in place, and I was surprised at how many there were! They include home visits twice a year, DBS checks, rabbini-cal references, and continuous communication to check that there are no concerns. Thank you to the team who work so hard to provide meaningful and safe volunteering opportunities for my child.

~ Mum of Volunteer

I really loved the idea of volunteering to make a difference in people's lives. I just didn't know how to go about it. Now that I've joined Shabbat Walk, my coordinator contacts me regularly with exciting opportunities to do chesed that are well suited to me.

Who does Shabbat Walk help?

Shabbat Walk assists families who are going through a really tough time. The reasons are varied but include having a child with additional needs, being a single parent or facing mental health struggles. No two families have the same exact circumstances, and their ability to cope may be very different. Shabbat Walk are here to work with these families and support them through the provision of youth volunteering. Additionally, our experienced Family Liaison Team can signpost families to receive support elsewhere, tapping into all of our community resources so that they can navigate their challenges in the best way possible.

How and when does Shabbat Walk operate?

Shabbat Walk is a free service with offices in London and Manchester that operate 365 days a year.

What do Shabbat Walk do to facilitate support?

Shabbat Walk acts as an intermediary between those who need support and those who are eager to help. We ensure that those who request assistance are in genuine need and that they and their environment are safe for volunteers. Shabbat Walk recruit and train an army of volunteers, mainly from local schools, but we also enlist over-18 volunteers who are particularly helpful for more complex cases. Shabbat Walk has a large team handling both the 207 families and the 851 volunteers on a daily basis, ensuring volunteering is productive, efficient and safe. This is a complex operation as both the families and the volunteers are vulnerable.

How does Shabbat Walk ensure volunteer safety?

Safeguarding is our absolute priority. Our Family Liaison Officers visit our beneficiaries in their homes twice a year, carry out risk assessments and DBS checks, follow up rabbinical references, and ensure that our safeguarding rules are strictly adhered to. Our volunteer coordinators are in constant contact with each volunteer, and volunteers are frequently debriefed about their sessions. This allows us to chart what has been happening and step in if anything needs addressing. We provide strong emotional support for both the volunteers and the families.

What costs are involved in running an organisation centered around volunteering?

To ensure the smooth operation of our multitude of services, our offices in London and Manchester employ 15 staff members. The families we assist are experiencing a vast array of challenging circumstances, with many of them having a number of children requiring daily support, each with unique needs that necessitate bespoke care. Discerning these needs and matching them up with appropriate and suitable volunteers who live in the same area and are available at the required times is a mammoth operation that demands a team with unfailing commitment, dedication, and sacrifice. Aside from the regular support provided, we also respond to dozens of one-off requests every week, such as collecting prescriptions for the housebound, and arranging volunteers for overnight stays with hospitalised children. As well as staffing costs, funds are allocated to a whole host of activities aimed at alleviating the strain for families and individuals. These include taking a child out for a milkshake, providing brunch packages for the elderly and alone, and organising a fun pre-Purim event for our families.

Adult Social Care Arrangements – Team Leader

Due to overwhelming demand, Paperweight is expanding and is looking for an enthusiastic, energetic, motivated experienced person to launch and manage our adult social care arrangements department, enabling us to provide focused, practical guidance and direction on adult social care.

The ideal candidate will have experience of navigating the system; social care protocols relating to short and long-term care due to illness, disability or age; protecting those in vulnerable situations and liaising with local authorities.

This is a part-time role with some occasional out-of-hours working.

The heart of Paperweight is the welfare of its clients. You will have an ability to learn and research the constantly changing welfare landscape and you will be expected to absorb the culture and approach we have developed.

Join our dynamic team – we are a friendly, energetic office, based in Hendon.

To apply or to arrange a preliminary chat, please send your CV to chaniecooper@paperweight.org.uk
Closing date 14th July 2023.

Salary dependent on experience.

AKIVE'LE, I am HUNGRY.

012 840 1514

These words tragically echo through the halls of the kuvalski household.

Since their beloved mother passed away a year ago, the ache of hunger for a warm meal has become all too familiar for this grieving family. Each day they struggle to find nourishment, but more often than not, they are unable to find anything substantial to eat.
